

I like 3D printing. The machine looks really cool. This has given the students a chance to build potentially helpful items. Plus, we can test our own inventions, sometimes. Thank you for this opportunity to build and print our ideas.